Dear Ms. Hesse:

I am writing in support of the Microsoft settlement. It is time for the federal government to stop spending millions on a lawsuit, when a reasonable settlement is at hand. This settlement, which all parties have agreed to, will put this issue to rest.

At a time when the stock market is down and the economy is in recession, the market is looking for stability — not the uncertainty of an ongoing lawsuit against one of America's most successful companies. There are many more important issues that the government can fund — from programs for children to paying down the national debt.

The consent decree is a fair compromise. Please support it. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Ka-hy Yoshihara
